 The Second Ray

Some fruits of (Divine Unity and belief in (Divine Unity
 In the Name of God, the All-Merciful, the All-Compassionate.

This Ray was written sixteen years ago when, after the release of my friends, I was left alone in Estigeir Prison. It was written at great speed in my own very deficient hand at a most distressing and disagreeable time; it is, therefore, somewhat lacking in order. However, while editing it recently I realized that in respect of expounding and proving the issues of belief and Divine Unity, it is a valuable treatise that includes forceful arguments.

Said Nursi

What follows is the seventh meaningful point concerning the six Greatest Names of God or God's six Names that have all-comprehensive manifestations, (which have been discussed at the end of The Gleams) and which deals with the notion of the Divine Being as the Unique One of Absolute Oneness (112:1).

NOTE: I believe that this treatise is significant for it contains and elaborates many subtle mysteries of belief. I hope God will enable those who read and understand it to rescue their belief. Unfortunately, since I have not been allowed to meet with anyone here, I have been unable to attain a clean copy of it for myself. If you wish to understand the main point of the treatise, begin with The Second and Third Fruits of The First Station. Read them carefully and then study the Conclusion at the end and the matters discussed in the two pages preceding that. When you have done this, go back and peruse the whole of the treatise slowly!

"A seventh meaningful point concerning God's six Greatest Names and regarding the fact that "God is the Unique One of Absolute Oneness
 In the Name of God, the All-Merciful, the All-Compassionate.

And from Him do we seek help

What follows here concerns three subtle and beautiful fruits that have grown from an understanding of God's Unity, together with three proofs of Oneness, which is inspired by a famous oath taken by the Prophet, upon him be peace and blessings, and a particular and extremely important meaning of the Qur'anic verse, And know that there is no deity but God (47:19).

WHEN TAKING AN OATH, GOD'S NOBLEST MESSENGER, UPON HIM BE PEACE AND BLESSINGS, USUALLY SAID, "BY HIM IN WHOSE HAND IS MUHAMMAD'S LIFE." THIS OATH SHOWS THAT FROM THE TINIEST OF ITS ROOTS, THROUGH THE INCALCULABLE GIRTH OF ITS TRUNK AND ALL THE WAY TO THE TIPS OF ITS INNUMERABLE BRANCHES, THE TREE OF THE UNIVERSE DEPENDS ENTIRELY AND UNAMBIGUOUSLY ON THE POWER AND WILL OF THE SINGLE, UNIQUE ONE, BOTH FOR BEING AND ITS CONTINUED EXISTENCE. FOR IF THE MOST DISTINGUISHED AND ILLUSTRIOUS OF CREATURES, PROPHET MUHAMMAD, UPON HIM BE PEACE AND BLESSINGS, DOES NOT OWN HIMSELF, IF HE CANNOT ACT AS HE WILLS AND IS DEPENDENT IN ALL OF HIS ACTIONS ON THE WILL OF ANOTHER, THEN NOTHING ELSE IN CREATION—NO STATE, NO QUALITY, WHETHER IT BE UNIVERSAL OR PARTICULAR—CAN OPERATE OUTSIDE THE SPHERE OF DOMINATION AND CONTROL OF THAT ALL-ENCOMPASSING AUTHORITY AND WILL.

A seventh meaningful point concerning God's six Greatest Names and regarding the fact that "God is the Unique One of Absolute Oneness"

In the Name of God, the All-Merciful, the All-Compassionate.
 And from Him do we seek help.

What follows here concerns three subtle and beautiful fruits that have grown from an understanding of God's Unity, together with three proofs of Oneness, which is inspired by a famous oath taken by the Prophet, upon him be peace and blessings, and a particular and extremely important meaning of the Qur'anic verse, And know that there is no deity but God (47:19).

What this meaningful oath of Prophet Muhammad, upon him be peace and blessings, includes is the fact that it is a shahada, upon which!
