

Kinokuniya to Relocate Torrance Store in California to Del Amo Fashion Center

Kinokuniya Book Stores of America Co., Ltd. (Chairman and President Masashi Takai) will relocate its Torrance Store to one of the largest shopping malls in the United States, Del Amo Fashion Center in Torrance, California in February 2020.

Kinokuniya Book Stores of America operates 21 stores in the United States, and the Torrance store currently operates as a stationery and gift shop. Taking this relocation as an opportunity, the store will expand its inventory of books to provide a wide range of Japanese and English books.

The city of Torrance is situated in southwestern Los Angeles County, located 15 miles south of Los Angeles City Central. It is also known to host the headquarters of many Japanese companies, with a large concentration of ethnic Japanese population.

In a world where digital contents are easily accessible, Japanese books and magazines can be read all over the world. However, as long as there are customers who prefer physical books, it is our duty to accommodate them. The new Torrance store is aimed to serve these customers.

Nevertheless, we wish to use our 50 years of experience in the retail business at the United States to serve as a hub for Japanese culture, and to entertain the local customers who visit the Del Amo Fashion Center. Japanese anime and manga related products, superior quality Japanese stationery, and gift items will be waiting.

Kinokuniya Book Stores of America Torrance Store

3525 Carson St #164-M Torrance, CA 90503

Store Hours: 11:00am - 8:00pm Daily

2120sqf